Christians Against Poverty (CAP), Mosaic Community Church will begin a release group in conjunction with CAP on May 9. Please invite those who you feel could benefit from a group like this, whether they battle drugs or anxiety, gossip or body image issues, technology, pornography and more. The release group is based on the 12 step plan, but as Christians we know we can only overcome through Jesus power. By inviting Jesus to help, and being supported by a community of people journeying together, plus learning some helpful tools, we know people will be released to live the abundant life they were created for! For more information, or to sign up, please call Tracy on 06 355 5671 Dale pastor@mosaicCC.nz
