Wanted Red Cross would really appreciate good quality donations for refugee families arriving here in Palmerston North in the next week. If you have any single sheets, saucepans, or children's toys suitable for toddlers through to 11 year olds, please can you drop them off to our Red Cross Service Centre, 245 Main Street and let us know they are specifically for refugee families. Thank you very much. Any sewing machines that still work well would also be very much appreciated.

Wanted If you are someone that likes working with flowers, we need a volunteer that could do floral buttonholes every 8 weeks to welcome refugees to Palmerston North. Flowers and materials needed for this are provided, we just need someone that has a spare 1 or 2 hours every 8 weeks to assemble them and drop them off to Red Cross on the day of refugee arrivals. If this interests you or you want more information, please ring or email Meryl 359 0977. Thank you.

Leading Well In A Complex World

"In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world." John 16:33

This year, I am thrilled that Pastor Chris Oberg, Senior Pastor at La Sierra University Church in Los Angeles is our special guest for SL2017. Chris will be presenting on this year's theme: Leading Well in a Complex World.

As a pastor, lecturer, wife, mother, and leader of one of the largest SDA churches in the United States, Chris has a deep appreciation for the challenges of ministry in 2017. In addition to leading a church community, she teaches the next generation of leaders at La Sierra University. Chris's experiences of leading a community comes from a conviction that the Christian life expressed through Adventist grace-driven priorities is worth pursuing and living.

Chris's primary ministry responsibilities are preaching, teaching, crisis visitation, strategic visioning, and leadership development. She considers preaching to be a sacred and treasured priority. Hearing a Word on target for lives today is what she hopes for every time she steps up to preach God's Word.

Ministry can be challenging in an increasingly complex world. SL2017 will help you in these uncertain times. SL2017 will enhance your leadership, provide you with tools, and will further develop your hope and courage. Whether you are an experienced or a new leader come and find out how you can adapt your God-given gifts for effective service in your context.

At SL2017 you will receive and give blessings! You will receive great presentations and warm fellowship. You will also have the opportunity to share what God has taught you through your leadership roles.

We look forward to a collaborative time of teaching and learning.

Pr Eddie Tupa'i, Lead Pastor, NNZC
